Improve Your Virtual Meetings by Increasing the Control and Convenience of Your Audioconferences

At MCI, we believe in providing our customers with the highest level of service across all our products, and MCI Premier Conferencing offers nothing less. As one of the industry's leading conferencing providers, we continue to enhance our products to meet your day-to-day conferencing needs. Today, MCI Premier Conferencing brings you the control, convenience, and personal consultation high-profile conference calls demand.

- MCI Premier Conferencing allows you to maximize your large and high-profile events by providing the control you need to manage your conference.
 - View participant lists before and during calls, allowing you to gauge meeting attendance
 - Observe participant status; view whether a participant is open to speak or is listening in as a “listen-only” participant
 - Speak to other leaders during the call or contact the conference coordinator for service questions
 - Monitor and manage the Question/Answer session; promote or remove participants from the Q&A queue
- MCI Premier Conferencing is a convenient, user-friendly tool.
 - No special software is required to run MCI Premier Conferencing. Simply access the service via an Internet browser.
 - Sort and print participant lists for future reference.
 - Gather polling results real-time via an Internet browser. Polling results provide a visual display of the results in real-time from the audioconferencing polling session.
- MCI Premier Conferencing offers a professional consultant to ensure each conference achieves your professional goals.
 - Meeting managers work with you through all stages of your call—preplanning through post-call follow-up. A conference coordinator is dedicated to monitor your conference call through its entirety.
